

Gloucestershire Echo, 'Where I Live '

SHURDINGTON Saturday 17th April 2010

- Next Saturday 24th April there will be a Coffee Morning in aid of Church hall funds, at St Paul's church hall. Coffee will be served from 10am to noon. Entry is £1.50 to include coffee or tea, and biscuits. Books and bric-a-brac will be on sale with a raffle thrown in. Local Art and Quilling Groups are also having a display of their work most of which will be for sale.
- Today also there will be a Cobalt Coffee morning at Sacred Hearts Church Hall Charlton Kings starting at 10am finishing at midday. To cater for anyone's taste there will be available crafts, charity cards, delicious home-made cakes, plants, raffle and coffee. The same will be happening on Saturdays 22nd May and 26th June.
- Sunday 25th April sees the annual St George's Day Parade in Pittville Park for our Cheltenham District Scouts. All members of Shurdington Scouts are reminder that they are expected to attend. We meet at 2pm in full uniform at Central Cross drive, Pittville. A letter will be handed to all members when we reconvene on Monday
- The Parish Assembly is due to take place in the Century Hall on Tuesday 27th April for a 7.30pm start. Please be seated well before the start.
- A reminder that this Monday 19th April the new waste collection system is launched with the first collection of the blue recycling wheelies, thence fortnightly. With this also put out your small green food caddies which will be collected weekly. The green wheelies will be collected fortnightly starting from 26th April. You will find full details of collection dates for 2010, and also what to separate in the three different bins on the village website.
- Considering this new recycling system the two large plastic recycling bins at the rear of the Social Centre have now been removed by Tewkesbury Borough Council. Please do not leave any more there as it classed as littering.
- Some Scouts and Leaders met last Monday evening for a grand clear-up session in their campfire area. Hedge cutting, pioneering pole sorting, and rubbish burning took a good couple of hours and ended with a bbq. Many thanks to Steve, Marie and Jason, and Scouts Aled, Ewen, Alex and Ollie.
