

Gloucestershire Echo, 'Where I Live '

SHURDINGTON Saturday 24th April 2010

- Today Saturday 24th April there will be a Coffee Morning in aid of Church hall funds, at St Paul's church hall. Coffee will be served from 10am to noon. Entry is £1.50 to include coffee or tea, and biscuits. Books and bric-a-brac will be on sale with a raffle thrown in. Local Art and Quilling Groups are also having a display of their work most of which will be for sale.
- Today also there will be a Cobalt Coffee morning at Sacred Hearts Church Hall Charlton Kings starting at 10am finishing at midday. To cater for anyone's taste there will be available crafts, charity cards, delicious home-made cakes, plants, raffle and coffee.
- Tomorrow Sunday 25th April sees the annual St George's Day Parade in Pittville Park for our Cheltenham District Scouts. All members of Shurdington Scout group are reminder that they are expected to attend. We meet at 2pm in full smart uniform at Central Cross drive, Pittville Park. Parade will walk up to the Pump Room for a service of thanksgiving and Promise Renewal, and parents are welcome to follow. There will be a collection for Shelter box before the Parade sets off from Central Cross Drive; please do give generously for this worthwhile charity. Buns and drinks will be served to members after the parade and pickup will be about 4.30pm from near the Pump Room.
- The Parish Assembly is due to take place in the Century Hall on Tuesday 27th April for a 7.30pm start. Please be seated well before the start.
- I hope not too many of you have been affected by the volcanic dust air disaster. I know several of our Scouts did not turn up last Monday, and are stranded here and there across Europe and further. Hope there is an end to it soon.
- The next meeting of the Evening Fellowship will take place in the Church Hall on Wednesday 28th April starting at 7.30pm. Arthur Chapman will be the speaker for the evening.
