

Gloucestershire Echo, 'Where I Live '

SHURDINGTON
Saturday 25th July 2009

- The Cotswold Fuchsia & Pelargonium Society will be holding their 40th Annual Fuchsia Show at the Social Centre in Shurdington next Saturday 1st August 2009 from noon till 4pm. There are open classes for Fuchsias, Floral Art Photography, crafts and Domestic. There will also be plants for sale, Raffle and Tombola and refreshments. Entry is a mere £1, with children free if accompanied. Further information or schedules please ring 01242 523740.
- Tai Chi is on again Monday afternoon in the Century hall. Please call in to enrol. Their last meeting for the term is in fact Monday 27th July.
- With the success of the Tewkesbury Borough Play Rangers here in Shurdington, although all schools have now broken up, Play Rangers will be here on Thursdays between 10am and 12.30pm for the morning session, and 1.30pm to 4pm for their afternoon sessions. Children, remember this has been put on just for you; it's free to use, free to choose and free to come and go as you please. Activities are targeted at the 8 to 16 year olds but under 8's are welcome and should be accompanied by a parent or carer. Families also are welcome for any of the sessions. Please do wear appropriate clothing to cope with any weather conditions. If anyone requires any further information please do call the Play Range Team Leader Katie Spencer on 07790 929069
- If all went according to plan our Scouts should have come back from Denmark yesterday, I guess with many stories to tell. I hope to have some of those stories and more photos on our village website.
- Incidentally if anyone has any old photos of the village and its inhabitants or some unusual story to tell please do let me know so it will not be lost through time.
- Lastly the July Draft copy of the Parish Council meeting is on the village website.
